Section 1: Exam Overview & Format

The AP French Language and Culture exam tests your ability to communicate in French across three modes: interpersonal, interpretive, and presentational. The exam is approximately 3 hours and 3 minutes long.

MEMORISE THIS

Exam Structure at a Glance:

Section	Task	Questions / Duration	Weight
I-A	Multiple-choice: reading	30 questions, ~40 min	23%
I-B	Multiple-choice: listening	35 questions, ~55 min	27%
II-A	Email reply	1 prompt, 15 min	12.5%
II-B	Persuasive essay	1 prompt + 3 sources, ~55 min	12.5%
II-C	Simulated conversation	5 prompts, ~20 sec each	12.5%
II-D	Cultural comparison	1 prompt, 2 min presentation	12.5%

Scoring

The exam is scored on a scale of 1 to 5. Most colleges grant credit or advanced placement for a score of 3 or higher, though selective institutions may require a 4 or 5.

EXAM ALERT

Key change for 2025-2026: College Board has clarified that the persuasive essay (Task 2) must engage with all three sources — students who ignore the audio source consistently score lower. Make sure you reference the audio clip in your essay.

The Six Themes

All AP French content is organized around six overarching themes. Every stimulus on the exam connects to at least one:

1. Les familles et les communautés — Families and Communities
2. La science et la technologie — Science and Technology
3. L'esthétique — Beauty and Aesthetics
4. La vie contemporaine — Contemporary Life
5. La quête de soi — Personal and Public Identities
6. Les défis mondiaux — Global Challenges

IB TIP

Strategy tip: When you encounter an unfamiliar passage, first identify which of the six themes it belongs to. This activates your thematic vocabulary and helps you anticipate the content before reading in detail.

Section 2: Multiple-Choice — Reading (Section I-A)

You will read a variety of French texts — articles, letters, advertisements, literary excerpts, charts, and graphs — then answer multiple-choice questions.

Text Types You Will See

- Journalistic articles (Le Monde, Le Figaro style)
- Literary excerpts (short fiction, memoir)
- Promotional materials (ads, brochures, event posters)
- Emails and correspondence
- Charts, infographics, and tables (paired with a text)

Reading Strategies

1. Skim first, then read closely

Before looking at the questions, spend 30 seconds skimming the passage. Identify:

- The source (journalistic? personal letter? ad?)
- The theme (which of the six AP themes?)
- The tone (formal? persuasive? nostalgic?)

2. Identify the main idea (idée principale)

The first question almost always asks about the main idea or purpose of the passage. Lock this in early.

3. Watch for false cognates (faux amis)

MEMORISE THIS

Common faux amis that appear on the AP exam:

French	Looks like...	Actually means
actuellement	"actually"	currently
assister à	"assist"	attend
attendre	"attend"	wait for
blessé	"bless"	injure
coin	"coin"	corner
librairie	"library"	bookstore
monnaie	"money"	change / currency
rester	"rest"	stay / remain
sympathique	"sympathetic"	nice / likable
travail	"travel"	work

4. Paired texts and graphs

When a passage is paired with a visual (chart, graph, table), expect at least one question that requires synthesizing both sources. Read the axes labels and title of the graphic in French carefully.

WORKED EXAMPLE

Worked Example — Reading Comprehension

Passage excerpt: “Selon un sondage récent, 67% des jeunes Français préfèrent communiquer par messagerie instantanée plutôt que par téléphone. Cette tendance, qui s’est accélérée depuis la pandémie, inquiète certains sociologues...”

Question: D’après le passage, quelle est l’attitude des sociologues envers cette tendance?

(A) Ils sont enthousiastes. (B) Ils sont préoccupés. (C) Ils sont indifférents. (D) Ils sont surpris.

Answer: (B) — The word inquiète (worries) signals concern. Don’t confuse it with indifférent.

Section 3: Multiple-Choice — Listening (Section I-B)

You will hear audio clips — conversations, interviews, news reports, announcements, and presentations — and answer multiple-choice questions. Each clip is played twice.

Audio Source Types

- Conversations between two speakers (formal and informal registers)
- News reports (radio/podcast style)

- Interviews
- Public announcements (airports, schools, public events)
- Voicemail messages

Listening Strategies

1. Read the questions and answer choices BEFORE the audio plays

You get preview time. Use every second of it. Underline key words in the questions so you know what to listen for.

2. First listen = gist; second listen = details

On the first playback, focus on understanding the overall situation:

- Who is speaking?
- What is the context?
- What is the speaker's attitude?

On the second playback, hunt for specific details that match the answer choices.

3. Register and tone matter

Pay attention to whether the speakers use tu or vous — this tells you about their relationship. Formal register often signals a professional or public context.

EXAM ALERT

Common trap: Audio clips sometimes include speakers who disagree with each other. The question may ask about one speaker's opinion specifically. Don't conflate Speaker A's view with Speaker B's.

4. Numbers, dates, and times

French numbers and times come up frequently. Practice hearing the difference between:

- soixante-dix (70), quatre-vingts (80), quatre-vingt-dix (90)
- quinze (15) vs. cinquante (50)
- 13h30 = 1:30 PM (24-hour clock is standard in French)

MEMORISE THIS

Listening comprehension — signal words to listen for:

Signal	Function
cependant, néanmoins, pourtant, toutefois	However / nevertheless — introduces a contrast
d'une part... d'autre part	On one hand... on the other — balanced argument
en revanche, par contre	On the other hand — contrasting point
autrement dit, c'est-à-dire	In other words — rephrasing (key idea coming)
en fin de compte, en somme	Ultimately / in short — conclusion
grâce à	Thanks to — positive cause
à cause de	Because of — neutral/negative cause

Section 4: Interpersonal Writing — Email Reply (Section II-A)

You will read a formal email prompt and write a reply in 15 minutes. The prompt is always a formal situation (a business, school, or organization writing to you).

Email Reply Requirements

Your reply must include all of the following:

1. A formal greeting (Madame/Monsieur, or Chère Madame Dupont.)
2. Reference to the original message (show you read and understood it)
3. Answers to all questions asked in the prompt
4. At least one question you ask in return
5. A formal closing (Je vous prie d'agréer, Madame/Monsieur, l'expression de mes sentiments distingués.)
6. Formal register throughout — use vous, not tu

MEMORISE THIS

Email template — memorize this structure:

Madame/Monsieur,

J'ai bien reçu votre courriel concernant [topic] et je vous remercie.

[Paragraph addressing the questions in the prompt — answer them]

[Paragraph with your own question or request for clarification]

Dans l'attente de votre réponse, je vous prie d'agréer,
Madame/Monsieur, l'expression de mes sentiments distingués

[Your name]

⚠ EXAM ALERT

Scoring killer: If you use tu instead of vous in the email reply, you automatically lose points on the “register” criterion — even if your French is otherwise excellent. The email is always formal.

Useful Formal Phrases

Purpose	French Phrase
Thank for writing	Je vous remercie de votre courriel / de m’avoir contacté(e)
In response to	En réponse à votre demande / à votre question
I am pleased to inform you	J’ai le plaisir de vous informer que...
I regret to inform you	J’ai le regret de vous annoncer que...
Could you clarify	Pourriez-vous me préciser / m’indiquer...
I look forward to	Dans l’attente de votre réponse...
Attached please find	Veuillez trouver ci-joint...

Section 5: Presentational Writing — Persuasive Essay (Section II-B)

This is the most complex task on the exam. You must write a persuasive essay that integrates information from three sources: a printed text, a chart/graph, and an audio clip.

Time Allocation (~55 minutes total)

1. 6 minutes — Read the printed source
2. ~4 minutes — Study the chart/graph
3. ~2 plays — Listen to the audio source (~3-4 min total)
4. ~40 minutes — Write your essay

Essay Structure

Your essay should have a clear thesis (thèse/prise de position) and follow this structure:

📖 MEMORISE THIS

Recommended essay structure:

Introduction (1 paragraph)

- Hook or contextualization
- State your thesis clearly: À mon avis, ... / Je suis convaincu(e) que...
- Preview your arguments

Body paragraph 1 — Your strongest argument

- Cite Source 1 (printed text): Selon l'article, ... / D'après le texte...

Body paragraph 2 — Supporting argument

- Cite Source 2 (chart/graph): Le graphique montre que... / Les données indiquent...

Body paragraph 3 — Counterargument + rebuttal

- Cite Source 3 (audio): Comme l'a souligné le locuteur, ... / L'interview révèle que...
- Acknowledge the opposing view, then rebut it

Conclusion (1 paragraph)

- Restate thesis in different words
- End with a broader reflection or call to action

Citing Sources Properly

You must reference all three sources. Use citation language like:

- Selon la source numéro un / le premier document...
- D'après le graphique / le tableau...
- Le document audio révèle que... / L'auteur du passage affirme que...

EXAM ALERT

Common mistake: Students summarize the sources instead of using them to support an argument. You need a clear opinion. Don't sit on the fence — take a position and defend it.

Transition Words for Argumentation

Function	Transitions
Adding	de plus, en outre, par ailleurs, également
Contrasting	cependant, néanmoins, en revanche, malgré
Cause	car, puisque, étant donné que, grâce à
Consequence	par conséquent, donc, ainsi, c'est pourquoi
Exemplifying	par exemple, notamment, tel que, à titre d'exemple
Concluding	en conclusion, en somme, pour conclure, en fin de compte

Section 6: Interpersonal Speaking — Simulated Conversation (Section II-C)

You will participate in a simulated conversation with a recorded speaker. You hear five prompts and have 20 seconds to respond to each one.

Conversation Format

The outline tells you the situation (e.g., “You are speaking with a French exchange student about school life”) and gives a brief description of what each of your five responses should address.

Strategies for the Conversation

1. Start speaking immediately

Don’t waste the 20 seconds thinking. Begin with a filler if needed:

- Eh bien, ... / Alors, ... / En fait, ...

2. Address the prompt completely

Each prompt description tells you exactly what to do. If it says “ask a question,” you must ask one. If it says “express your opinion,” give a clear position.

3. Use varied sentence structures

Show range. Mix:

- Simple sentences: J’aime beaucoup le sport.
- Complex sentences: Bien que j’aime le sport, je n’ai pas toujours le temps d’en faire.
- Conditional: Si j’avais plus de temps, je ferais du tennis.

4. React to what the speaker says

Show that you’re listening and responding naturally:

- C’est une bonne question! / Ah, c’est intéressant! / Je comprends tout à fait.

IB TIP

Pro tip: Practice with a timer. Record yourself giving 20-second responses to random prompts. The biggest enemy on this task is silence — even imperfect French is better than no response.

MEMORISE THIS

Conversation fillers and starters:

Situation	French Phrase
Agreeing	Je suis tout à fait d'accord. / Absolument! / C'est exactement ce que je pense.
Disagreeing politely	Je comprends votre point de vue, mais... / Je ne suis pas tout à fait d'accord parce que...
Asking for clarification	Pourriez-vous répéter? / Que voulez-vous dire par...?
Expressing preference	Je préfère... parce que... / Pour ma part, je trouve que...
Giving advice	À mon avis, vous devriez... / Je vous conseillerais de...
Expressing enthusiasm	C'est formidable! / Quelle bonne idée! / Ça me plairait beaucoup!

Section 7: Presentational Speaking — Cultural Comparison (Section II-D)

You will be given a prompt asking you to compare a cultural practice, product, or perspective in a French-speaking community with your own community. You get 4 minutes to prepare and 2 minutes to speak.

Structure Your Response

MEMORISE THIS

Cultural comparison framework:

Opening (15 seconds)

- State the topic: La question porte sur [topic]...
- Briefly preview what you'll compare

French-speaking world (45 seconds)

- Describe the cultural practice/product/perspective in a specific Francophone country or region
- Give a concrete example (a specific tradition, law, event, or custom)

Your own community (45 seconds)

- Describe how the same topic manifests in your community
- Give a concrete example

Comparison and reflection (15 seconds)

- Explicitly compare: Alors que dans la culture française... dans ma communauté...

- End with a reflection on what this difference/similarity reveals

Building Your Francophone Knowledge Bank

You need specific cultural knowledge. Here are essential topics to prepare:

Les familles et les communautés

- Le PACS (civil union in France)
- La fête des voisins (Neighbors' Day)
- Le rôle de la famille élargie in West African Francophone countries

La vie contemporaine

- Le système éducatif français (le baccalauréat, les grandes écoles)
- La Sécurité sociale / le système de santé
- Les congés payés (5 weeks of paid vacation in France)
- La gastronomie: UNESCO heritage status of the French meal

La science et la technologie

- La loi HADOPI (internet piracy law)
- Le TGV and French public transportation
- France's nuclear energy policy

Les défis mondiaux

- La Francophonie (Organisation internationale de la Francophonie)
- Immigration and integration in France
- Environmental policy: les accords de Paris

L'esthétique

- Le Festival de Cannes
- La bande dessinée (Tintin, Astérix) as a respected art form
- La mode française: haute couture vs. prêt-à-porter

La quête de soi

- La laïcité (secularism in French public life)
- Le mouvement #MeToo / #BalanceTonPorc in France
- Creole identity in the French Caribbean (Guadeloupe, Martinique)

EXAM ALERT

Don't be vague. Saying "In France, food is important" earns minimal credit. Saying "In France, the traditional multi-course meal — entrée, plat, fromage, dessert — was inscribed on the UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage list in 2010, reflecting the cultural significance of the repas gastronomique" shows the specific knowledge that earns top marks.

WORKED EXAMPLE

Prompt:

Vous avez reçu un courriel du directeur d'un programme d'échange scolaire en France. Il vous demande pourquoi vous souhaitez participer à ce programme, quelles sont vos compétences en français, et dans quelle ville vous aimeriez être placé(e).

Model response structure:

Monsieur le Directeur,

J'ai bien reçu votre courriel concernant le programme d'échange scolaire et je vous en remercie vivement.

Je souhaite participer à ce programme car je suis passionné(e) par la culture française et j'aimerais améliorer mes compétences linguistiques dans un contexte authentique. En ce qui concerne mon niveau de français, j'étudie cette langue depuis quatre ans dans mon lycée et j'ai obtenu une note de 5 à l'examen AP l'année dernière. Je suis capable de tenir une conversation courante et de rédiger des textes argumentatifs.

Quant à la ville, j'aimerais beaucoup être placé(e) à Lyon, car je m'intéresse à la gastronomie française et Lyon est reconnue comme la capitale culinaire de la France. Pourriez-vous me préciser la durée exacte du séjour et les activités culturelles prévues dans le programme?

Dans l'attente de votre réponse, je vous prie d'agréer, Monsieur le Directeur, l'expression de mes sentiments distingués.

Cultural Comparison Practice

WORKED EXAMPLE

Prompt: Comparez les attitudes envers le temps libre dans une communauté francophone et dans votre communauté.

Key points to include:

Francophone perspective:

- In France, the 35-hour workweek (les 35 heures) and 5 weeks of paid vacation (congrés payés) reflect a cultural priority on work-life balance
- La pause déjeuner of 1-2 hours is common in many workplaces
- August is traditionally the month when much of France goes on vacation (les grandes vacances)

Your community perspective:

- Contrast with typical American work culture (2 weeks vacation, longer hours)
- Discuss the concept of “hustle culture” and how attitudes are evolving
- Mention specific local practices (weekend activities, summer camps)

Comparison:

- The difference reflects deeper cultural values about the relationship between work and leisure
- Both cultures are evolving — France debating the 35-hour week, the US discussing work-life balance post-pandemic
